Such is the feast to which all pence-makers, through reconstructien, are now invited.

The tone and temper of this letter plainly indieste to us that we can have no honorable peace with the enemy, until his proud and haughty bearing shall have been humbled. His cupidty and rapacity have been aroused by partial success in smalling and robbery, and, like the starved and famished tiger, his appetite has only bean whented by his taste of blood. Not peace through honorable war, but plunder and pillage Is now his purpose and his main stimulus to sotion. He wants our homes, our farms, our lawle our horses, nurles and cattle, our eilver plats, our money and our household and kitchen forniwhere. Prome and to him to deads of desperate Auring. In another cultuma will be found a letter to the Mauritie Bulletin, dated Ponshuntan, Tenn. August Oth, detailing the centure and brutal "partism cargors," a mole of wariare author ander commissions from the Government. The wery fact of the moster roll of the company be ing found in the coas of Capt STREET, which was captured by the Federals, was gricus furth evidence that the body to which the unfortunate wirtims of Federal barbarism and lubuman cruselty belonged, was an organized force, acting under authority. If our Government is not dewarfare which she authorizes, in God's name let these compacies he disharded, or turned over to the regular or provisional army. If such hodies are not to be pretected, this system of warfare must degenerate into indiscriminatmarder and plunder, our independent partitions taking their defense in their own hands. La is due to the position of strict neutrality which we assumed in the first issue of our paper in Atlanta in reference to State politics, that we discisim any complicity with the critithem indulged in by our army correspondent at Dalton of the latter of Mr. Hill which appeared in our spaper some days since. It sometimes happens that the latters of our regular correspondents are inserted without parms by us provious to their publication. Such was the case in the present instance.
